

Jennifer Collins AM

Jennifer was appointed to the KTMW Board in August 2017, and as Chair in December 2019.

Jennifer has had extensive experience over 40 years as a senior leader in Government, Not For Profit and the university sector which has equipped her with the skills necessary to drive organisational growth and success, to lead and inspire teams, navigate complex organisational challenges, and make difficult decisions.

Over this period Jennifer has honed her skills in financial acumen, risk management, corporate governance, and stakeholder management. In her current board roles, she has spearhead the development of strategic, capital, and asset plans, orchestrate the formulation of annual budgets, manage risks across all projects and participate in board governance training.

She was admitted as Member of the Order of Australia (AM) for services to veterans and their families and nursing in 2022.

Jennifer retired in 2017 from the Commonwealth Department of Veterans' Affairs as Deputy Commissioner NSW/ACT. She is also a Director and Deputy Chair of the Families of Veterans Guild (Australian War Widows NSW). She holds a master's in management, Diploma in Counselling and is a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD).
